

Coaching Application

Farmington City Parks & Recreation

The following information is required to perform a background check. All applicable blanks need to be filled in to help us make a reasonable decision.

By signing this form, I hereby agree to have the Farmington Parks & Recreation and or its agents perform a background check. By signing this form, I am applying to be a coach, but will not be assigned a role, if any, until the check has been completed. Failure to complete the form or falsifying the form is grounds for rejection.

None of the information of the background check is made public to Farmington Parks & Recreation staff. Our law enforcement, knowing the criteria established, make the decision for us. The results are confidential.

It is understood that if accepted by Farmington City, as a volunteer coach, I will support and enforce the Code of Ethics:

1. To attend all meetings and rules clinics set up by the Department prior to the beginning of each sport season.
2. I will promote team play that is safe, fun and enjoyable remembering that competition encourages cooperation, self-discipline and motivation while enhancing the development of life lasting traits. I will lead my team remembering that competition is a process for children to learn.
3. I will promote respect in one's self and others through good sportsmanship by emphasizing the development of cooperation and respectful behavior towards teammates, opponents, referees and coaches. I will help each child feel good about himself/herself.
4. I will promote responsibility in one's own life through encouraged participation and will emphasize that one's effort is more important than the final score.
5. I will promote sports fundamentals which are essential to enjoy the game. I will strive to develop each child's skills and abilities to their potential.

What will you do and how will you ensure each player gets playing time? _____
