

1) Commission to vote to approve David Barney as the next chairman

John Anderson has graciously served as Chair for several years and will be stepping down as Chair at the October 2020 meeting, but he plans to stay on the Commission.

2) Farmington Historic Landmarks Register nomination

Susan Petheram

Amanda Riddle for her mothers home

Susan has been communicating with Amanda Riddle about getting her mother's property at 463 North 100 East listed on the Farmington Historic Landmarks Register. While the property is not currently listed on the National Register, we heard back from the State Historic Preservation Office that the home was determined as an Eligible/Significant resource during a 2005 reconnaissance level survey of Farmington. Is that determination sufficient for the city's Historic Landmarks Register process, as outlined in Title 11, Chapter 39?

3) Wind damage to Historic home 208 N Main Street

Hector C. Haight House/Union Hotel - National Register

Judy Rosendahl

Judy recently had wind damage to her home. She is wanting to work with the Historical Committee to assure the structure is restored keeping the historical home intact with materials etc. I had her contact Cory Jensen with the state preservation office to give advice.

4) Request from Andrew Clark for a $10,000 matching state historic grant next year.

The FCHPC must be approved to receive a grant from the state in 2021 by January.

- 5 persons appointed to their Historic Preservation Commission
- Email at least 5 resumes of the persons serving on the commission to afranco@utah.gov
- Have Historic Preservation Ordinance in place
- Email a copy of Farmington's preservation ordinance to afranco@utah.gov