

Farmington Historic Preservation Committee Meeting

Attendance

- David Barney, Karina Landward, Shannon Hansell, Shawn Beus, Andrew Clark, Annette Tidwell, Tiffany Ames

Main Street Historic District placed on Landmarks Register

- Will be revisited in 2022, post inauguration of the incoming mayor.

Ezra T. Clark home – grant status update

- Certificate of Historical Appropriateness Review-FCHPC will review in 9/22/2021.
- Andrew will start on the roof ASAP, because to hopefully have done before winter.
 - Still working with the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) on shingle types.

By-law's review

- FHPC will forward bylaws to the city council to have them approve and forward to the city attorney.
 - David Barney advanced the motion to forward the bylaws to the city council, Karina seconded, all members in attendance agreed.

Other Business

- The “Proposed Letter to Neighbors” will be sent to Dave Petersen to review.
- Karina researched grants for historic markers.
 - There is federal money that is administered through the state in the form of matching grants.
 - Grants can be used for things other than just preserving homes.
 - David will reach SHPO regarding addressing FCHPC in a future meeting.
 - Private organization that offer grants geared towards historic preservation.

- Budget for digitizing

Wednesday, August 25, 2021

- Farmington City is paying for digitizing.
- 52 tapes
 - Multiple interviews
 - Video footage of historic homes
 - Andrew will share in September.
 - Scrapbooks are being worked on.
- David Barney wants the State Historic Preservation link added to Farmington city's website.
 - Shannon will have the link added to the website.
- Hybrid Zoom/in-person meetings will continue indefinitely.
 - David will have the link added to future meetings on the city website.
- Annette will follow-up on what needs to happen to have an American flag erected again at the Museum.