

Farmington Historic Preservation Committee Meeting

Attendance

- David Barney, Karina Landward, Shannon Hansell, Shawn Beus, Andrew Clark, Annette Tidwell, Darrin Degraw, Tiffany Ames, Dave Petersen, Charlotte Packard, Guest Chloe Thompson

Main Street Historic District placed on Landmarks Register

- Dave Petersen discussed Main Street Historic District (MSHD).
- Outreach will be significant.
 - Straw poll and door-to-door contact.
 - Mock open house for FCHPC members
 - Tuesday or Thursday nights are better for City staff members.
 - Lagoon owns 8 of the 99 homes within the potential district (8.1%)
 - Individual homes can be excluded from MSHD, if homeowners do not want to participate.

Ezra T. Clark home – grant status update

- State approved shingles request
 - Brand of approved shingle-Ludowici
- Federal review now needed.
- Certificate of Historical Appropriateness (CoHA)
 - Home owner files for building permit first
 - Planning Commission will then bring to FCHPC to review CoHA
 - FCHPC recommendation for Federal review
 - 10 criteria per CoHA 11.39.060

Wednesday, September 22, 2021

Rice Barn tour review

- Briefly discussed and showed pictures of home and the plans for its reconstruction.
- Chloe Thompson attended the meeting to talk about the history of the home and her family's involvement.
 - Rice Barn was built in approximately 1862.

2022 – Grant application-for Digitization of Historic Museum archive.

$7,500 matching grant

- Delay for October meeting

FHCPC

Other Business

- At the request of the mayor and City Council, available FCHPC members will attend the Tuesday October 5, 7:00 PM council meeting via Zoom or in-person.